

- On Jeep Trail
- Saw a Grey Jay fly across trail behind me. Pished and 3 came in - quite ag.

Sounds I never heard before -
EE yoop - EE yoop
and chattering
Eh-Eh-Eh-Eh-Eh-Eh

INTRODUCTION TO NATURE JOURNALING AT RIVER HOOK PRESERVE (IN PERSON)

June 11, 2022 | 10:00am - 12:00pm Rain or Shine

An illustrated Nature Journal is a combination of art, nature and science. It combines writing with images as a means of recording observations and stimulating inquiry. This workshop taught by James Van Gelder, introduces participants to this unique way of experiencing the natural world. Presented in partnership with the Friends of River Hook and taking place at River Hook Preserve, 611 North Midland Avenue, Upper Nyack. Rain or Shine! Instructor will provide some basic materials. Please feel free to bring your own.

TO REGISTER FOR THIS FREE EVENT VISIT THE CALENDAR PAGE AT NYACKLIBRARY.ORG OR CALL 845.358.3370 EXT 214. SPACE LIMITED TO 15.